Revised 2018

Lesson aims and outcomes

Semester 1, 2018

For 4 to 6 year olds

The Connect series is published by Christian Education Publications, the publishing arm of the Sydney Anglican Diocese. It is commonly used by religious volunteers to deliver Religious Instruction in state schools around Queensland. These materials are not part of the formal school curriculum and are not endorsed by the Queensland Department of Education and Training.

Queensland Parents for Secular State Schools have reproduced the lesson aims and outcomes below so that parents are able to make an informed choice when considering whether to enroll their child in Religious Instruction.
